PRE-CONFERENCE Parts Therapy Workshop:

When clients have an inner conflict, parts therapy often helps to resolve the conflict even when other hypnotic techniques fail.

Someone strongly desiring to attain a goal, but who also experiences self-sabotage, may be a prime candidate for PARTS THERAPY. Competently facilitated, parts therapy often helps people get past barriers when other techniques are insufficient. However, there are pitfalls that must be avoided in order to maximize results for your clients. This course is experiential, and is a MUST for anyone not totally familiar with parts therapy. Roy Hunter, is the published author of two hypnosis texts based on the teachings of the late Charles Tebbetts, as well as Hypnosis for Inner Conflict Resolution: Introducing Parts Therapy. All who attend will receive a participant workbook.

New hypnotherapists and hypnotherapy students may take the first two days of the training course for $350 and become a Certified Parts Therapy Facilitator.

After successful completion of the parts therapy trainer program, you will have all the tools necessary to teach client centered parts therapy to their hypnosis students using an optional PowerPoint Presentation, designed for exclusive use of Certified Parts Therapy Trainers. You will also have the right to teach parts therapy outside of your classroom for professionals, using copyrighted materials for a small royalty. While the first two days are devoted to learning parts therapy, the last two days will enlist the expert teaching of Roy Hunter to show you how to train others to properly employ parts therapy.

The first two days will cover the following:

1. Explain the concept of Parts Therapy
2. Compare Parts Therapy with several other similar techniques such as Ego State Therapy

4. Assess when Parts Therapy is indicated
5. Explain to a client how Parts Therapy is a way to mediate inner conflicts between different parts of the client's personality

7. Properly apply the eleven steps of the Parts Therapy process (or protocol) to help a client resolve an inner conflict
